Council Meets

Problem
of Water
Is Cited

Sierra Madre's water consumption, interference of state and county in municipal affairs and questions affecting the Canyon pool situation and the Floral Debris Basin were highlighted at Tuesday night's City Council meeting.

The total amount of water pumped from the four deep wells for the past six months has been the heaviest in the last six years. Primarily, this has been caused by subnormal rains last year, plus the heat wave of last summer. The amount pumped by the deep well as charged by the Raymond Basin allocation, and reported by City Administrator Larry Bevington, follows:

In 1954, 1,167 acre feet; 1955, 1,189 acre feet; 1956, 1,230 acre feet; 1957, 1,128 acre feet; 1958, 1,069 acre feet, and 1959, 1,262 acre feet.

Bevington advanced the premise that the time may come when Sierra Madre could use 2,500 acre feet and that the pumping might possibly attain 1,750 acre feet at this spring's measurement. In the contingency of using a much higher acre footage of water the amount could be reduced to 1,250 feet, according to the allocation agreement. He added, however, that the city would then request Arcadia for an increase, as provided for by law.

HOW TO UTILIZE the Canyon pool site, either as a parking area or as a park for children, perplexed the city fathers no end. Incidentally, Councilmen Walter Lisle and James Abernethy were absent because of illness.

Investigation had been made into obtaining a three-foot chain fence for $250 with which to enclose the area as a park for children, but the Foothill Improvement Association favored a parking lot. Several citizens present spoke in favor of the latter. Councilman Severin Sorensen would abandon both projects and sell the property. Administrator Bevington didn't see it as a park but as a parking lot.

Council finally decided on an informal hearing in Council Chambers on Tuesday, Jan. 26, at 8 o'clock at which interested citizens may air their views.

A LETTER from the Los Angeles County Flood Control District cited the dangers incidental to non-completion of a dam in the Floral Debris Basin real estate development. It was pointed out by Administrator Bevington that five inches of rain could precipitate a break which might spread serious damage as far as Carter, possibly below.

The Arcadia Investment Company, which is developing the tract at an initial cost of between $250,000 and $300,000, was accused of being tardy in completing the dam, especially in its lack of a spillway to carry off surplus water.

Keating To Retire
From Postal Work

There's a fella who most patrons of the Sierra Madre Postoffice have known these many years for his ready smile, a flash of his brown eyes and general competence, and who his fellow employees are going to miss from now on.

He is George E. Keating, now 71, of 164 S. Lima, mail messenger for the postoffice, who is going to retire for good, and who has been in the service since 1942. Veteran of World War I with the Canadian forces, Keating was formally retired when he reached 65, but he has continued through the succeeding years as a contractor, hauling the mail to and from Pasadena.

NOW HE IS GOING to retire "for keeps," as he says, so that he can more fully enjoy his leisure time.

He's an "outdoor man," this Keating. As messenger and special delivery man, he has covered some 150,000 miles in his career as one of Uncle Sam's mail employees who make certain that "rain or shine, the mail goes through." This means 45 miles daily on the round trip between Sierra Madre and Pasadena and other travel. It spells out to more than 8,000 miles a year. That takes some driving.

Cleanup Day
At Cemetery
Aim of VFW

Sierra Madre Veterans of the Foreign Wars need the assistance of every able-bodied citizen to help clean up and police the 8½ acre Sierra Madre Cemetery at Cornum and Sierra Madre Blvd., which for a long time had been an eyesore until the veterans intervened.

The VFW will hold a meeting at the Harry L. Embre Post rooms, at 40 E. Montecito, next Wednesday at 8 p. m. to discuss plans for the cemetery maintenance during 1960. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

The VFW, through its cemetery committee, has been appointed by the city to maintain the cemetery. It also has been given all the papers and money which is in the bank under a separate account.

But the veterans need assistance in this difficult task of maintaining and caring for the cemetery, and according to Grover Hudson, commander, would welcome volunteers during Cemetery Cleanup Day scheduled for Sunday, Jan. 31, beginning at 9 a. m.

ACCORDING to Sterling Ripple of the Ripple Mortuary, more than 600 persons are buried in the cemetery, many of them veterans. The graves had been sadly neglected until last year when the VFW assumed charge and began a restoration job, devoting 500 man-hours to the task. The headstones had been sadly neglected for years, some broken by vandals.

This is a community project in which Sierra Madreans can give all-out assistance to the veterans, one in which everyone should aid.

Sierra Madre's building permits for 1959 showed a healthy $579,776 gain over 1958.

Figures for the year were $2,147,664, compared to $1,567,888 for 1958.

December with 16 single dwelling units for $295,000, and the Girls High School for $300,000 led the year. December totals were $694,357 compared to $160,493 for December, 1958.

David W. Lane, of Pasadena, has taken over the Park-Lane jewelry and recording instrument store at 54 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., heretofore operated by his brother, Robert W. Lane, and will offer a full and attractive line of these and attendant merchandise, including cameras, to his patrons.

Virus Epidemic Sweeps
Sierra Madre SchoolsRose Float 'Mr. Stork' Gets Permanent
Home in a San Diego Maternity Wing

Our Tournament of Roses "Mr. Stork" now a celebrity, is going places.

San Diego, the southernmost metropolis, with an alert eye for toptop promotion, has come all the way to Sierra Madre to make permanent the exhibit which figured prominently in this city's "The Birds and the Bees" float that appeared in Pasadena's New Year's parade.

Frank McDougal, administrator for the Sharp Memorial Hospital in San Diego, via TV, saw the Sierra Madre float in the parade. Now, Sharp Memorial Hospital shortly will open a new maternity wing.

Naturally, "The Stork" could assume a lead role in such a venture—and did.

WHY NOT TAKE it to San Diego and make it a permanent figure in the new maternity ward, ruminated Administrator McDougal? Now Administrator McDougal isn't a person to ruminate too long without converting visions into reality.

So he phoned Ralph R. Rule, co-chairman of the Float Committee with Manuel de la Torre and George T. Fleming, Jr., asking if "The Stork" could be transferred to San Diego and ensconced in a prominent place in Sharp Memorial's new maternity wing.

The San Madreans assented and on Saturday last Mr. McDougal dispatched a truck from San Diego driven by Assistant Administrator John Delaney and "Mr. Stork" was loaded—with due obsession — and taken southward.

THERE IT WILL form a permanent exhibit for the maternity wing, either being painted in such a way or given "a skin" application to preserve it.

'Tis rumored that male members of The San Diego Stork Club which Administrator McDougal has organized, will be required to salute and salute "Mr. Stork" on entering the maternity wing on certain "eventful and natal days."

Industry Also Badly
Struck by 'New Flu'

The severe and widespread and evidently new virus influenza epidemic this week lashed out viciously at Sierra Madre and environs, especially pupils and teachers in Sierra Mesa and Sierra Madre Elementary Schools, St. Rita's Catholic School and, to a lesser extent, the Ascension Parish School. Industry in the area also is affected.

With Supt. R. E. Walker confined to his San Dimas home, Sierra Mesa School, with a 500 enrollment, reported 75 children and six teachers, one secretary and a custodian absent Monday and Tuesday with the malady. Sierra Madre Elementary, with 450 enrollment, reported 65 pupils and one secretary absent in the same two days.

ST. RITA'S Catholic School, where 390 are enrolled, 112 pupils, plus five teachers, were reported ill by School Mother Inez.

Ascension Parish School, with 129 boys and girls from kindergarten through the eighth grade, reported only eight ill, but Sister Noel, in charge, was keeping a close watch for any incipency.

Monrovia schools also were virus-swept.

THE ELECTRIC Data Division of Burroughs Incorporated at 460 N. Sierra Madre Villa, had 76 employees absent one day this week because of the virus and other nearby industry was similar.

R. Thompson
Passes Away
At His Home

A resident of California for 33 years and of Sierra Madre since 1941, Richard Thompson, 66, of 619 W. Alegria Ave., passed away suddenly last Friday.

Mr. Thompson was a veteran of World War I and a member of the Masons, Monrovia Lodge. Surviving are his wife, Bessie I. Thompson, and a daughter, Ruth J. Thompson, each of Sierra Madre; a brother, Enos Thompson of Sioux City, Iowa, and sisters, Mrs. Carl Ashland, Mason City, Iowa, and Mrs. Lewis Cook of Yankton, S.D.

Funeral services were Monday from the Ripple Mortuary, with the Rev. George W. Lindsay of the Sierra Madre Congregational Church officiating, and with the Masons in charge. Interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Alert Raccoon
Invades Yard of
S.M. Residence

An energetic, alert-eyed little stranger invaded the back yard of Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Fratt of 295 W. Orange Grove, Sierra Madre, Monday morning.

The little fella was a snappy looking young raccoon.

Dennis Fratt, 10-year-old son of the Fratts, first noticed the raccoon while the family was at breakfast. The animal was on the ground seeking food and the Fratts provided it with a bread menu which raccoons relish.

"It certainly was cute," remarked Mrs. Fratt, adding that when a cat approached the raccoon promptly sat up on its haunches ready for battle. The cat looked the raccoon over carefully—and withdrew.

S. M. Postal
Receipts Up
16 Per Cent

Sierra Madre, the "Foothill City of Livability," grows steadily.

If you don't believe it glance over the postal receipt figures for 1959, as reported by Postmaster Charles E. Louk and his assistant, Guy Rossi.

Postal receipts for 1959 totaled $199,575.30, compared to $171,950.30 for 1958, an increase of 16 per cent.

THE DECEMBER business reached a peak of $39,106.19, biggest month in the history of the Sierra Madre postoffice.

Receipts for 1959 were more than the entire business for the World War II year of 1945, Postmaster Louk reveals.

Mrs. Marie Warfel, city clerk, announces that nominations for two councilmen-at-large, city clerk and city treasurer, will open on Thursday, Jan. 28. Closing time for filings is Thursday, Feb. 18, at noon. Term for all the above posts is four years.

News Want Ads
Produce Pronto

Mrs. Pauline Richter of 703 Manzanita, Sierra Madre, wanted to sell a cooking stove which was cluttering up her kitchen.

She placed a three-time want ad in the Sierra Madre News.

What happened? Plenty and fast.

Mrs. Richter sold the stove immediately after the first insertion—the other two insertions were not necessary.

Mrs. Richter thus sold her stove pronto—and saved the cost of two insertions.

This proves that SIERRA MADRE NEWS WANT ADS do produce money-making results.

Enhance Our 'Livability'

THE STATEMENT of President John H. Curtis, newly-elected, at the first 1960 Board of Directors meeting of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, that "with the present Board of Directors, we can look forward to a most active and constructive year" is highly encouraging to all loyal citizens of our "Foothill City of Livability."

There is much to be accomplished in the way of constructive effort to enhance this "Livability," and we are sure that under the Curtis aegis, Sierra Madre will be a better place in which to reside when his first term expires next December.

THERE WILL BE obstacles to overcome, of course, probably many and worrisome, but if the spirit of unity prevails that was manifest at the meeting of the Board of Directors, then our truly beautiful and healthy city will, in the months to come, become a more improved area. In this spirit the Sierra Madre News salutes Mr. Curtis, the members of the standing committee which he has named, the other directors, officers and general membership.

We do not expect wonders but we do anticipate constructive, worthwhile effort in behalf of our "Foothill City of Livability."

Republicans, Note This

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER'S State of the Union message once again focuses attention on the fact, unfortunately perhaps politically, that he is looked up to by the people of America as an individual—and we stress use of "individual"—rather than the titular head of any political party. Realistically, Republicans must consider that he is something more than that.

This means that the Republicans in this year's elections must go it alone in much larger measure than in the past two presidential elections. There will be no Eisenhower, beloved and respected by the people, as the magnetized polar star of Republicanism.

What does this imply? Mainly that a lot of hard political slogging in the next ten months must start now. In the interest of the party—and victory—every loyal Republican should participate more fully in party activities at all angles. They should not hesitate to undertake such often inglorious and unglamorous, but highly important political chores as doorbell ringing, poll watching and even soapboxing. They should not shirk the duty of contributing to the party of their choice.

ABOVE ALL, every effort should be made to effect a thorough-going, hard-hitting Republican organization in every precinct in California. There is no substitute for precinct organization. Lack of it was one of the prime reasons for the 1958 debacle which put California under Democratic control after almost three decades of Republican leadership. The Democrats had precinct organization—and plenty of funds. The Republicans had little precinct organization and what money they had was spent—unwisely—on Knowland, a losing horse from the start, and on a misconception of a "Right-to-Work" proposal originating among the "Spring Street Boys" in Los Angeles.

Combine precinct organization, with ample funds, and you have the sinews of political victory.

The Republican Party is best equipped to meet the major needs of this nation in both foreign and domestic fields. The Republican Administration has demonstrated its ability to maintain peace with honor. It has kept America strong on both military and economic fronts.

IT HAS BATTLED for fiscal responsibility and against unnecessary spending and the forces of inflation. It has steadfastly sought to serve the common interests. For seven consecutive years it has provided the kind of government which we are sure the people of the United States will vote to continue, but only if:

Every organization gets on the ball, takes part in precinct organization and activities, and helps to put across the Republican success story to all the people of America, not to just a privileged few. It has to stop being that kind of "a privileged party."

When the books are closed on the eight years of the Eisenhower Administration they will show that more people have been at work, earning more, producing more and investing more than during any comparable period in the nation's history. The most important dividend of all is the fact that peace has been maintained.

Eisenhower has done and is doing his share. Let the rest of the Republicans not fuddle his fine record. Let's get going and pyramid it anew into an overwhelming victory in November. It can be done.

21 Million Women Work

A WOMAN'S SEX, once a formidable barrier to business success, fast disappears under the impact of 21 million American women who now go to work every day. The sex barrier has fallen with the breaking of the sound barrier, the atom and fading barriers of race, creed and color.

Even the banking profession, so long a traditional masculine stronghold, has become aware of the fact that 34 women now preside as bank presidents in the United States and that 10,000 more women hold officers positions in our banks. A striking example in our own area is the president of the National Association of Bank Women, Mrs. Dee Bush, now vice president of the Valley National Bank at Phoenix, Ariz. Her bank has 18 women officers, probably second to the Bank of America which recently reported some 300 women officers. Mrs. Bush, a widow, also has been a housewife and mother for 15 years. In the lower ranks of the 450,000 non-officer bank personnel in the United States 300,000 wear skirts and powder their noses.

WORKING WIVES now outnumber the once-fabulous career girls two to one, a dramatic shift. In the grand-mother group—45 and up—almost one-half of them work. Wives, mothers, divorcees—they're all in there pitching—90 per cent of them contributing to the support of their families. Their total annual earnings are estimated by the Department of Agriculture as $30 billion before taxes. It's a trite question, of course, but just who did say that this is a man's world? Brother, you're wrong!

Lee Shippey asks What Do You Think?

Ever since Khrushchev visited us, and appeared shocked and indignant at the can-can dance he witnessed in Hollywood, many persons have expressed surprise and have suspected he was merely putting on an act.

But last week I got hold of a possible explanation. A friend who is acting as a volunteer counselor to some of the foreign students at UCLA was invited to some of the doings for Khrushchev and took along, as interpreter, a student who had lived several years in Russia as a child and could speak Russian. The student told my friend that in Russia any gesture which confronts a person with an upraised posterior is considered a serious insult, equivalent to saying "Kiss me here."

OTHER DAY I took my first flight, from Los Angeles to San Diego by PSA. It took an hour and three-quarters to get from Pasadena to Los Angeles International Airport by limousine, 29 minutes to fly to San Diego, and then, because of traffic, nearly another hour to get home to Del Mar. Progress is wonderful.

THAT SAME DAY the wife and four children of my son, Frank, flew from San Diego to Santa Maria to join their daddy, who has taken an engineering job at Vandenberg Missile Base. They had to change planes at International Airport and I met them there. As 10-year-old John swaggered off the plane he smugly remarked: "Now we've had experience."

I wonder if that yearning for experience and knowledge isn't the thing which will compel us to keep on progressing and progressing, whether we like it or not.

WHAT DOES it mean when county or city officials blandly assure us they're not going to raise taxes this year? Well, judging by the past, it usually means they are going to raise assessments, and sometimes one wonders how they can say such things with straight faces.

Of course new subdivisions, new business buildings and great new shopping centers mean more population, more schools, more fire and police protection, but they also mean vast increases in taxable values.

For instance, when pastures or vacant property is transformed into a vast new shopping center the taxes it must pay are so greatly increased it would seem, to us who are not in politics they would provide a surplus instead of a deficit in tax revenues.

And isn't that new, luxurious subway, 1,000 feet long, connecting the Senate and the House in Washington and costing a mere $6 million, a classic example of political economy?

BOY, HOW LUCKY are we who live in small cities, governed by friends and neighbors who serve us for free out of patriotism and do

Letters to the Editor

THANKS FLOAT WORKERS

AS CO-CHAIRMEN of the recent Sierra Madre Float, we wish to thank the Sierra Madre News for the wonderful publicity given our float during Mr. Elwood's ownership and under the present management, Ed-E. Herwig, editor and publisher.

We would like also to use the good offices of your newspaper to publicly thank everyone who worked so hard and so long to make our float the success that it was.

Space would not permit our mentioning all our friends and neighbors but we would like to single out and thank:

Mrs. Malcolm Birch, chairman of our Flower Construction Volunteers, who gave so unstintingly of her time to line up and assign work to the volunteer workers, particularly during the hectic hours of putting on the floats.

Mrs. Kurt Ferber, who acted as Mrs. Birch's assistant. Ralph Emerson, who not only worked on the float but headed up the committee that recruited the construction workers.

Mrs. William Waite and Mrs. Bert Menne, co-chairmen of the Rose Sale, through whose effort nearly $500 was raised for the float.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Moyer who handled the publicity with the local press and the Pasadena newspapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben McGee—Ben, our alternate driver and the spearhead of most of the construction work (he learned to weld in the process) and Jeanne, who filled in on nearly every job, serving food, making signs, keeping records and pasting flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon MacDonald—Sam had his co-chairman of the flower committee, the ever smiling Joan, whose three years of float building experience proved invaluable.

George Fleming and his ten financial aides who had the necessary task of raising the balance of the money.

Bryce Tyler, our float driver of several years, and erstwhile fireman, spent many hours working on the float.

But Hartman, our animation expert and this year it was Larry Bevington, our able City Administrator, under whose leadership the Float Association functions.

And to all the city employees who were disposed of our taking over the Garage Building.

And a special thank you to all the individuals and businessmen who contributed that most important money and in so doing expressed an interest in our float.

While we did not win one of the first prizes, the satisfaction of having a beautiful float, built as a community project, plus a second award, was to us, sufficient reward.

Sincerely,
Manuel de la Torre,
Ralph R. Rule,
Co-Chairmen.

Dear Sir:

WE ARE GLAD indeed that Sierra Madre's unselfish civic enterprise on the Tournament of Roses float was rewarded with second place honors in its class. We appreciated the opportunity of a final inspection of the masterpiece at our uncrowded Village Triangle.

During this local display, the dedicated efforts of 750 Sierra Madreans were matched by the undedicated toil of small fry vandals. They swiftly reduced the float to the unattractive nakedness of a plucked fowl. We humbly recommend that the public mutilation of future masterpieces be limited to 24 hours.

K. FRITZ SCHUMACHER.

10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Jan. 17, 1950—Sierra Madre Chief of Police Gordon C. Burn victim, six-year-old Marian "Coo" Schwartz, came home last week after another successful skin grafting operation at St. Luke's Hospital. Doctors further removed scar tissue and released her arms, which she has been unable to lower due to a "wing" growth of the scar tissue.

This is Coo's 19th time in surgery and her doctor says they'll probably be treating her for the next 15 years.

Coo, daughter of Sam and Virginia Schwartz, was terribly burned last spring (her clothing ignited from a gas heater causing third degree burns over 80 per cent of her body) and spent many months at Children's Hospital. In spite of extreme pain and prospect of years of operations ahead, the little girl is incredibly sweet and accepting—cheerfully keeping up the spirits of her family and many friends.

PLAYHOUSE PAIR. "The Great Sebastians," due to open Jan. 21 at Pasadena Playhouse, will feature two Sierra Madre actors: Mel McCoy and Selwyn Meyers. Mel has appeared in many productions at the Town Hall Theatre (in the round) and Meyers is a teacher at the Playhouse (strictly proscenium?).

DR. AND MRS. Nathan Jacobs were so enchanted with their holiday vacation in Mexico (their first trip)—they're planning a return engagement next Christmas. Nettie, former dedicated School Board member—(presently substitute teaching at Arcadia High School) was particularly delighted to learn that 50 per cent of Mexico's budget goes for education.

HAPPY NEW YEAR! 1959 was great and 1960 will be better. A hard-working minority in the first session of the 86th Congress attained two major victories in 1959 . . . a closely balanced budget and a strong labor law. Neither of these victories seemed possible last January. Both were fought tooth and nail by the hordes of big spending, pro-labor freshmen Congressmen who swept the 1958 election.

A balanced national budget means a great deal more than a mere exercise in bookkeeping. It is a symbol of stability and sound government. It benefits you because it helps safeguard your bank account, your life insurance dollars, and the purchasing power of your income.

TOM O'GRADY, now living in Yorba Linda, paid a Sunday visit to his parents, the John O'Grady's, 535 Manzanita, (the family has lived here since 1929). Tommy lives with his wife, three children, two horses, and assorted dogs and cats, on a five-acre ranch. When he isn't busy as a lab technician, he raises lemons, oranges and avocados.

PLAUDITS AND thank-you-very-much to Phillip, Tony and Johnny (last names undetermined) of the City Refuse Truck, who spotted the recent fire atop Duncan Aldrich's roof, grabbed a hose and practically had the blaze quelled before the fire truck arrived.

SICK SEARCHERS. Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team's sick count from the recent blizzard rescue in Cucamonga Canyon: Fred LaLone, frozen feet (he was off work a week—and there's still not much feeling in them); Don Colbert, wrenched back; Chuck Kessler, a new kink in an already bad back; Grant Radon, Jr., a cold and Miner Harkness, the flu, fever and accompanying miseries.

In fact, Miner was so feverish, his wife, Diane, had to track the bloodhound up Double Drive in a midnight search for a runaway Arcadia boy. The ten-year-old turned up asleep in the family closet—claimed he spent part of the night in a tree.

IT'S GOOD to learn, that Mrs. Catharine Miller is feeling more chipper and will soon have the cast off her right arm which was broken in a fall last month. Mrs. Miller (Hi! Dee Dee) was a well known resident of Sierra Madre for many years (a member of Dicken's Fellowship, Priscilla's, the Woman's Club, etc.) before moving to Arcadia with her son, Al.

Rockefeller Displays 'Political Judo'

By Robert G. Spivack
WASHINGTON

ROCKEFELLER'S SUNDAY PUNCH—He picked the Sunday newspapers to make his announcement and in a few hundred well-chosen words Nelson Rockefeller managed to make the 1960 Republican presidential nomination a thing of diminishing value. He also made the phrase "Richard Nixon" sound like two of the dirtiest words in the English language.

The Democrats have reason to be delighted; thoughtful Republicans may ponder the future, if any, of their party.

During the weeks when he was actively and eagerly, almost too eagerly, trying to win the Republican nomination Rockefeller seemed politically amateurish. But his "definite and final" statement of withdrawal—which may yet prove to be neither definite nor final—had all the earmarks of political professionalism.

Sometimes a man's feelings have to be badly bruised before he speaks with the clarity that the situation requires. This obviously happened in Rockefeller's case; on advice from Nixon headquarters he was given the "big freeze" in his transcontinental political soundings.

He responded by putting across two basic ideas:

First, that the 1960 Chicago convention was obviously going to be "fixed" if certain people had their way. The party bosses always want it to be like a "rigged" television quiz show. Second that these same bosses, if unchallenged, had picked Nixon in advance as the winner. So far as Rockefeller was concerned he would not accommodate them by entering a contest with the odds so arranged.

His trips around the country have made it "clear . . . that the great majority of those who will control the Republican convention stand opposed to any contest for the nomination." (emphasis mine—R.G.S.)

ROCKEFELLER'S COM-MANDO TACTICS—The New York governor may or may not be back in the Republican race but his current tactics make life difficult for Nixon. What Rockefeller has done is to recreate the image of Nixon as "Tricky Dicky," the contender who bets only on sure things, the man who won't get into the ring until he knows the referee, the timekeeper and the judges have all been "taken care of" in advance.

Rockefeller's tactics are a sort of combination political judo and commando. He throws his opponent over his shoulder and then breaks his back, smiling all the while. His statement and its timing showed what a tough adversary he could be—a lesson Averell Harriman had already learned in New York.

He did not mention Nixon by name even once. Yet by this omission he left the impression that the very name made him shudder, that Nixon was so far beneath consideration as a presidential possibility one just did not talk about him.

WHAT DOES ALL THIS DO to Nixon? It makes him the frontrunner. But it also must give him pause. For there is sure to be doubt whether the Republican bosses will love him in May as they do in December.

What every political boss wants and understands is success. It's one of the keys to political power. The man who is a "winner" is the man they want to string along with. And Nixon is tarnished with the reputation of "loser." When he carried the ball for the party in 1954, it lost control of Congress. Four years later when he tried again in 1958 its losses were even worse than they were four years earlier.

In 1952 and 1956 it was Gen. Eisenhower who "won" for the Republicans; not Nixon. On the other hand Rockefeller has the reputation of winning on his own. His appeal to independent voters and Democrats is potent. It's no secret that at Democratic National headquarters everyone was saying that with Rockefeller as an opponent the 1960 Democratic candidate was a "sure loser."

WHY THEN DIDN'T THE BOSSES go for Rockefeller on his recent tour?

Because political bosses are scared and timid men who don't like to be forced to make a choice six months ahead of time. It's not that they like Rockefeller less or Nixon more.

What they are afraid of is that Eisenhower might die before his term expires and Nixon would become President. If they were lined up against him now, he would never forgive them. That's the club he used to beat them into line.

It may work on the bosses—but the voters are yet to be heard from.

Your Congressman . . .

Sees Labor, Spending as 1960 Issues

By Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand
21st District, Calif.

HAPPY NEW YEAR! 1959 was great and 1960 will be better.

A hard-working minority in the first session of the 86th Congress attained two major victories in 1959 . . . a closely balanced budget and a strong labor law. Neither of these victories seemed possible last January. Both were fought tooth and nail by the hordes of big spending, pro-labor freshmen Congressmen who swept the 1958 election.

A balanced national budget means a great deal more than a mere exercise in bookkeeping. It is a symbol of stability and sound government. It benefits you because it helps safeguard your bank account, your life insurance dollars, and the purchasing power of your income.

THE NEW labor law is directed solely at controlling abuses of union power by unscrupulous union leaders. It is designed to protect both the public and the rank and file union member. It is not an "anti-labor" law. It is a pro-public law, a pro-union law.

It will help honest union members to get rid of dishonest union officials and members. It will give the good union man control once again over his union.

I do not wish to arouse old hatreds, or re-open old wounds by reciting all the wrongs which led to this legislation. That is water over the dam.

IN THE new session coming in 1960, these two issues will again be prominent. With Congress controlled by the "spenders" by two-to-one, federal spending and federal budget is bound to be an issue. And with election year politics running rampant, it will be hard to hold the line on the vote-buying schemes.

Two issues concerning labor unions are likely to be debated. One is the question of compulsory arbitration which has been resurrected by Dave McDonald and the lingering steel strike. The other is the question of union anti-monopoly legislation.

These issues will be debated, but not necessarily decided, in the next session of Congress.

On the Trails . . .

A Colored Gentleman of Our Canyon

Few tales of the trails tell a greater success story than that of the little colored man who came to our hills in the early days and after whom El Prieto Canyon took its name.

Robert Owen was born a slave on a bleak Texas plain in 1806. The days of his youth were spent tilling the sunbaked land and harvesting seemingly endless rows of cotton.

Although exceedingly tired at the end of each day Owen spent long evening hours learning to read and write. His most treasured possession was a small worn Bible which he always carried in a special pocket close to his heart.

In his late teens Owen fell in love and married a gentle girl known only as Winnie who was also a slave and to the were born two daughters and a son.

STORIES of the building of the West where all men were free intrigued him and he made a vow that someday, somehow, he would find a way to follow the sun to the land of opportunity.

The Owen family saved every penny they could until at long last he was able to buy his freedom. On a cold November day he kissed his weeping wife and children goodbye and with a promise to send money back to buy their freedom headed west to seek a new way of life in the golden land beyond the plains.

Robert Owen first entered our mountains December, 1853, and settled in a shaded glen high in the Arroyo Seco above the land claimed by anyone else.

THE LONELINESS of the canyon and the longing for his family was almost more than he could endure. Each day before sunrise he would hike from his mountain home to do all the odd jobs he could and often missed meals until he had saved enough to send for his wife and children.

Their ambition and pleasant manner won respect and they became known to the mountain folks of that day as "Uncle Bob" and "Aunt Winnie."

The first religious service ever held in Los Angeles County by colored people were held at their home in 1854.

OWEN'S BRIGHTEST day was the day he obtained a government contract to supply fuel to the United States officers and soldiers stationed at Los Angeles.

Soon he was hiring help,

Small Wonder That We Need Tranquilizers

Some kids set off some firecrackers in our block the other day, and all of the commotion sorta set me to thinking that most of us wake up to the ring of our alarm clocks—eat breakfast to the swing of radio music—drive to work to the tune of frantic honking of automobile horns—spend the day listening to the whirring of machines or the clicking of typewriters—and then come home to relax to the blaring of out T.V. sets—It's no wonder that we live in the age of tranquilizers.

The Rev. Ray E. Hansen, Pastor

THIS MODERN DAY CHURCH, of unique design, for the St. Paul's Lutheran Church congregation at Monrovia, should be completed and ready for service soon.

Break Ground Soon for St. Paul's Lutheran

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new sanctuary for St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Monrovia will be within 60 days.

Sierra Madiran Earl T. Knowles, Sunset Homes representative in Sierra Madre, announces that the commercial division of K. & M. Construction Co. will begin work on the new building at 625 W. of Muana Loa, at that time. The building, 140 by 51 feet, will be contemporary California, a unique design in church architecture.

The church, designed by Smith and Williams, architects, will accommodate 575 worshippers. According to President Merbitz of K. & M. Construction Co., it will be of block, stained glass and will include the newly created "floating vault" roof which has recently appeared on the California scene.

A NOTEWORTHY feature

Presbyterian Moderator Area Visitor

United Presbyterians of the Southland will welcome their highest denominational leader, Dr. Arthur L. Miller, moderator of the General Assembly, with a series of meetings when he visits the area over the coming Jan. 21-24, weekend.

Dr. Miller is pastor of the 4,200-member Montview Boulevard Presbyterian Church of Denver, where he has served for more than 12 years, prior to which he had served churches in Laramie, Wyo., Hutchinson, Kans., and Lincoln, Neb.

During his visit to Southern California, Moderator Miller will address several thousand of his fellow churchmen at ten meetings in widely separated areas, including two television appearances on Sunday, with viewing audiences estimated at close to 500,000.

HIS TWO PRINCIPAL appearances in the Los Angeles Metropolitan Area will be on Saturday, Jan. 23, at a breakfast for ruling elders to be held at Pasadena Presbyterian Church, 585 East Colorado St., at 7:45 a.m., and at the dedication of Royal Oaks Manor, church-operated residence for retired persons, located at 1763 Royal Oaks Dr., in Duarte, starting at 2:30 p.m.

Dr. Miller was born on a farm near Geetingsville, Ind., on Sept. 2, 1899. He took his bachelor's degree from Indiana University in 1922, studied at Princeton Seminary, and graduated from McCormick Seminary in 1925.

will be a 27-foot shaft of stained glass and light at the entrance of the building, and a completely encircling lantern of stained glass around the top of the superstructure which floats from the vaulted roof.

Within the building the church chancel has been so designed that there are no obstructive elements to the view of any worshiper as he sits within the nave. Electronic magnification of

Youth Will Read Part of Haftorah

David Weissman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheppard Weissman, will read a portion of the Haftorah on the occasion of his Bar-Mitzvah at the Foothill Jewish Community Center, Temple Beth Israel, 212 N. Lima St., Sierra Madre, Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

Rabbi Charles W. Steckel, spiritual leader of the Temple, will deliver the benediction. Cantor Barnett Mitock will chant the prayers.

Orientation Classes Will Be Conducted

The Sierra Madre Methodist Church will begin a series of Orientation Classes for persons interested in Methodism next Sunday at 9:30 a.m. The series of three classes will cover the historical, theological and practical aspects and principles of Methodism.

Dr. Paul Bryan, retired dean of the Law School, Emory University, of Atlanta, Ga., will discuss the "History and Origin of Methodism."

On Jan. 24, Dr. Wilder Reynolds, retired professor from Asbury Theological Seminary at Wilmore, Ky., and history department at Azusa College, will talk on "Basic Methodist Beliefs."

On Jan. 31 Myron E. Smith, chairman of the Official Church Board and lay leader, and William E. Heller, Board of Trustees, will discuss the "Local Church and You," stressing the practical importance of Methodism and the individual.

The classes will be held each Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Sierra Madre Methodist Church parsonage. The public is welcome and invited to attend.

Hansen Will Discuss Need For Changing

"You Must Change" will be the sermon of the Rev. Ray E. Hansen, pastor of Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran church, 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., Sierra Madre, at 10 a.m. Sunday.

"The significance of Christ's changing water into wine at the wedding feast at Cana is not that He was able to perform a feat of magic," the pastor will say. "The Lord is pointing out for us the entire future course of his ministry by this one act."

"Like all His miracles, this one had a purpose—to reveal His glory. Christ is teaching us through it. He is saying, 'Now, I can change water into wine—and you've seen me do that—why can't you believe that I can change people, too?'"

"JESUS' TASK is to change us from what we are to what we should be. He is saying, 'Let me work in your life and I will perform another miracle a good deal more important than changing water into wine. I will change your life from something ordinary to something special, from something colorless and tasteless—like water—to something rich and beautiful—like wine.'"

The choir, directed by Charles E. Markham, will sing the anthem, "God Is Love."

Bible classes for all ages are offered during Sunday School which begins at 9 a.m.

St. Mary Plans 'Feast of Lights'

The Episcopal Young Churchmen of the Church of the Transfiguration, First and Lemon Aves., Arcadia, will next Sunday present the Annual Feast of Lights. This beautiful and traditional Epiphany Service will be given in the Chapel of St. Mary at 5 p.m.

Being within the octave of the Feast of the Epiphany, the service consists of six tableaux ending with the coming of the Wise Men and spreading of the Light of Christ to all the world.

Those taking part in the tableaux are: Mary, Pam Lewis; Joseph, Mike Townsend; Wise Men, Dave Cooper, Hugh Townsend and Bill Bailey; Elizabeth, Carol Crosby; Gabriel, Dona Webb; Angels, Carol Crosby and Carol Barker; Shepherds, David Ladd, Pete Cooper, Jim Ewan and John Hamilton; Readers, Karen Bailey and Mike Townsend.

TEA AND TORAH MEET

Members of the Women's Division of the Foothill Jewish Community Center will meet on Thursday morning, Jan. 21, at 10 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Baron, 324 Rosemarie Ave., Arcadia, for the next session of "Tea and Torah," conducted by Dr. Charles W. Steckel, spiritual leader of the Temple Center, who is widely known for his work in Biblical Research.

Sierra Madre Girl Scouts Prove Value to Community

Although busy with their own and troop Christmas activities, Sierra Madre Girl Scouts, in December, continued to give the community service which is an integral part of their Scouting program.

Members of Ships "Novia del Mar" and "Sea Nymph," and of Troop 501, 508, 505, 511, and 513 helped to decorate the Rose Parade Float.

"Sea Nymph" Mariners carolled throughout the town before their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. William Tweedie, and Troop 501 filled the Junior Red Cross boxes with materials contributed by the elementary school children.

Troop 508 stuffed approximately 2,000 envelopes for the March of Dimes campaign.

MEMBERS of No. 507 made complete outfits for 3 dolls for needy children. Two dolls with these outfits were sent to Children's Hospital and one to the Monrovia Health Center. Mrs. Audie Lou Colvin assisted Mrs. Verna Richter, Troop Leader, in supervising this project. Troop 522 made Christmas favors for Casa Colina. The January hospital service project is being carried out by Troop 513 for the Orthopedic Hospital.

Leaders and adult Scouts contributed individual gifts for the annual Christmas Doll Party at Juvenile Hall.

MARINERS of Ships "Novia del Mar" and "Sea Nymph" celebrated the Twelfth Night with 100 other Senior Scouts of the Pasadena Area Council, Saturday night, Jan. 9, at Loma Alta Park, Pasadena. This event was an international party to celebrate Twelfth Night customs, with folk dancing, demonstrations of the Highland Fling and Sailor's Hornpipe.

Pasadena Area Girl Scout Council has been recently re-districted for more efficient service and better distribution of areas within the Council.

Two more Pasadena neighborhoods join North District, of which Sierra Madre is a part, and will be known in the future as Sierra Vista District. The new district, one of six, extends from the Arroyo on the west to Sierra Madre on the east, and from Colorado Blvd. north to Alhambra.

ON THE Girl Scout Calendar of coming events for the near future are:

Annual dinner meeting of the Pasadena Area Girl Scout Council on Jan. 21, at 6:45 p.m., at the Pasadena Presbyterian Church, for all registered adults. New officers of the Council will be elected, annual reports given, and a film of last summer's Senior Roundup shown. Leadership training courses for Brownie and Intermediate levels begin in February.

The Annual Cookie Sale to be held in February and the Garden Tours in March.

EDWARD P. FLEISCHER, long-time Lower Hastings Ranch resident, now of 500 Pembroke Dr., Pasadena, has been appointed assistant director of the Electro Mechanical Instrument Division, Consolidated Electrodynamics Corp., 360 Sierra Madre Villa, Pasadena. Formerly assistant to the president, Fleischer will be responsible for manufacturing operations of the division.

S.M. School Teachers Confer With Parents of Students

Sierra Madre School teachers are having individual conferences with parents of their students this week.

Teachers from Kindergarten through sixth grade are scheduling the conferences with the assistance of room mothers. The conferences are designed to evaluate the progress of the student this year, to plan improvements where possible, and to discuss any special problems.

In grades three to six, they will take the place of report cards this quarter.

Notices have been sent to parents setting the time for conferences. To permit adequate time for the program, Principal Ed Hawkins said today that a minimum class schedule will be in effect all week. Grades three through six will be dismissed at 2 o'clock every afternoon.

AFTER THE conferences

WARNER SPRINGS VISIT

teachers will send written reports to parents covering every phase of the children's progress in school.

Hawkins said that the conferences are especially valuable because they give parents and teachers a chance to exchange ideas and ask questions of each other which may be helpful in the children's education.

Keating Retires

All this Keating describes as "prosaic," but it really is not, for there is nothing commonplace about this modest man. He is stamped with "the outdoors," and if locked long inside he certainly would suffer from claustrophobia.

STEMMING FROM Irish forebears, Keating enlisted out of British Columbia when

World War II broke, serving with the Canadians and later transferring to the Royal Flying Corps. He spent 31 months in the service.

Came 1926 and he had a yen for world travel, including China and its jam-packed cities of Hong Kong and Shanghai. The crowded condition of the Wang Poo River at Shanghai and its thousands who live all their lives on the boats in that stream are a significant memory to Keating.

Returning to America after visiting many foreign lands, he eventually settled in Sierra Madre.

WHEN HE EMBARKED in the postal service, the Sierra Madre Postoffice then was in a small building on Baldwin. Nine years ago, of course, Keating transferred to the new offices on Sierra Madre Blvd. When he began his postal work, Sierra Madre had 2,500 population. Now it has almost 10,000.

Theme will be "Family Life in the Urban World." A series of film strips will be shown, according to program chairman, Mrs. Walter Rode. The meeting will be held in the Olive O'Byrne room at the church. Separate business meetings of the three circles will precede the general meeting. Church of the Ascension Parish Dinner on Thursday

The annual parish dinner and meeting of the Church of the Ascension will be held in the Parish Hall, Thursday, at 6:30 p.m. Following the dinner served by the church women under the combined leadership of Mmes. James Felton, Otho Lord, and F. James Blake, three new vestrymen and three delegates to Convocation will be elected. Reports of the past year's activities will be presented by each organization and made available for study. Tickets for the dinner are 75 cents and may be obtained at the door.

The Sisters of St. Mary are holding an open house, Sunday, from 3 to 5 p.m., at St. Mary's House, 45 E. Laurel, in honor of the Rev. Mother Superior General, C.S.M. who is here on her official biennial visitation.

Fortnighters Will Discuss Jeremiah

The Fortnighters adult discussion group at the Congregational Church, will discuss the prophet Jeremiah at their meeting this Friday evening at the parsonage. Called, sometimes, "The Weeping Prophet," Jeremiah yet conveys a deep sense of the reality of God's power in the midst of crisis. The times of the prophet were not unlike our own, and relevance of the prophetic witness to our day is readily apparent.

The Fortnighters, which is open to all adults interested in learning more of the Old Testament, meets at 8 p.m. on Fridays.

The Sierra Madre Police Department handled licensing for which there was a charge of 25 cents. The California Highway Patrol was on hand to inspect each bicycle for mechanical safety. PTA members assisted with all parts of the program.

HAWKINS WAS assisted by some of the students in giving the safe riding tests. The Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club, under the direction of Larry Bevington, president, applied reflector tape to each bicycle.

To participate, each child brought 25 cents for his license and a completed registration slip. Slips were sent to parents. Parents are being sent a report covering each child and bicycle registered showing condition of the bicycle and the child's ability to ride safely.

Ike's Moroccan Visit Told By Former Sierra Madrean

An eyewitness closeup of President Eisenhower's visit to Morocco is given by Nancy A. Dillon, former Sierra Madrean in a letter to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Dillon, formerly of 45 E. Highland, now of Banning and who in March plan to resume their Sierra Madre residence.

Miss Dillon, with Headquarters 4310 Air Division stationed overseas, and in the "Very Important Persons" section that day, writes:

"Yesterday was the day, and I believe all of Morocco turned out to see the President and the king. We were at the front line at Nouasseur which had been turned into something big. Bleachers were set up, and a throne room for the king had been set up.

"We arrived about 9:30 a.m. (the President was due at 11:10). Fortunately it was cool but sunny with scarce a cloud in the sky.

"ABOUT 10, a 1,000-man Moroccan honor guard marched in trailing a band. It really was colorful. At about 10:45 the king himself, Crown Prince Moulay Hassan, Princess Alsha and another princess drove in with motorcycle escort. Boy, all the Moroccans in the bleachers were cheering and making some eerie sound as the king's red and beige Rolls Royce swept by. It was fantastic.

"At 11:05 the President's plane appeared in the air and five minutes later set down. All the ambassadors in Morocco were lined up right in front of where I was sitting as the President and king met. The king, younger than I had expected, wore a beige djellaba (the long robes) and a sort of a fedora with no brim on it. After they walked through the ambassadors, they both went to the throne room which I understood was furnished scrumptiously. The walk leading there was covered with beautiful Moroccan and Persian rugs.

"IKE GAVE a short speech and so did the king—in beautiful English. They then drove off for the palace downtown. As we drove out the back gate there must have been hundreds of thousands of Moroccans encamped there. I have never seen so much color in all of my life.

"There were Berbers who had come from the desert, Rifis who had ridden in from the mountains—arches all over the road saying "Welcome" in English and Arabic, and American flags everywhere. Those people had been encamped there two days waiting for the President.

"While we slowly drove through the crowds, the Arabs staged what they call "fantasias" (these are Arabs riding horses, about six or seven at a time, all dressed up in their turbans and djellabas) racing their horses as fast as they can go and meanwhile shooting off their guns. It is really something to see. As we drove through, the Arabs shouted "American! American!"

Tony Set for More European Racing

By Joe Scialo

An American driver racing in Europe is news, but such a driver who not only races but wins consistently, and in a car he helped design himself, is really newsworthy. Such a driver is Sierra Madre's Tony Settember of 24 Mira Monte, who drove in Naples, Italy's Grand Prix last year and not only scored a resounding win but set a new lap record as well.

"Winning at Naples was particularly rewarding," Settember relates, "because it was the first race in the car I had been helping build for six months."

This car, which was powered by an Italian Maserati engine, was good enough to win the grueling 200-mile race at record speed.

SHORTLY AFTER this event, Settember flew back to the United States to finish the 1959 season by competing in California events.

Driving a Corvette owned by Jack Young of Los Angeles, the Sierra Madre driver scored wins in both Arizona and California, his biggest victory of the year being at Tucson.

The coming 1960 season will find the young competitor racing in Western events, with a chance of going to Europe later in the season.

Tony has been competing in automobile racing for six years now, and has steadily grown from a novice to an expert.

"My first race was at Torrey Pines, California, in a Jaguar, during the latter part of 1954," Tony says. "After this first race I was sure driving was for me, and I competed in numerous events following Torrey Pines."

LATER SWITCHING to an MG Special which Tony terms as "being fast, but not fast enough to win," Settember gained even more experience before changing, in 1956, to the car that was to bring him national fame—the Mercedes 300 SL.

"The first time I drove an SL was at Palm Springs, and it took me half the race to find out how to use the car's full potential," Tony explains, "and by that time it was too late to take better than second place."

Tony had his first victory with the car at the tricky Pebble Beach, Calif., course, where he defeated a national field. Following this win, Settember drove in two more—Santa Rosa and Bakersfield, establishing himself as perhaps the nation's top Mercedes driver.

After this most successful season, Tony devoted the following year to stock car racing, but found he preferred sports car racing to it.

IN 1958 he returned to sports cars, competing with his own Corvette. Several outstanding performances were turned in, notably his Saturday race at Riverside International Raceway in July, where he finished second behind a Ferrari.

His 1959 record, which enabled him to finish in the top 10 drivers in the Pacific Coast Class B Championship, included two victories and numerous second and third place finishes.

About his future in racing, Tony says with a smile, "I just want to keep racing, and eventually to compete in Europe again."

And watching the 33-year-old driver, whose biggest fans are his wife, Rena, and dog, Agnes, it seems only natural to assume that in the near future he will be driving in Europe.

Council Meeting

Council gave the developer 30 days in which to eliminate this hazard; otherwise it will consider court action.

POINTS AT ISSUE between the state and Los Angeles County governments and Sierra Madre were:

1. A notice that Los Angeles County will hold hearings on a county waterworks standard ordinance on Feb. 4. It was pointed out that this will establish a precedent for waterworks construction, that it would afford Los Angeles County undue jurisdiction in the field of water, possibly to the detriment of smaller cities, and could increase water costs and rates. City Administrator Bevington was directed to attend the meeting and oppose the project. Consensus of the Council was that "it is a bad ordinance."

2. The Board of Supervisors has called an informal hearing on plans for reorganizing the Municipal Courts of Los Angeles County for Jan. 20. A nine-district court is proposed. Council doesn't relish the idea of a change in the present court setup. City Attorney Charles Martin was directed to attend the meeting as "an interested observer."

3. The State Legislature at its last session established a regulation by which each city must yearly file with the state determination of the prevailing wages in the locality. In other words, the contractor must pay the prevailing wages in such cases and the city must pay that amount to him. Council approved, but didn't like it.

4. The State Legislature has established a requirement that all cities must furnish the state, prior to May 1, an estimate of the existing deficiencies in all city streets, together with an estimate of the possible street deficiency in 1980.

CHEVROLET and Ford bid, respectively, $1,866.38 and $1,820 for a half-ton pickup truck needed by the city. Both bids were from outside the city. Councilman Sorensen asked why dealers from Sierra Madre did not bid on such contracts, and for a better price. At Council President Webster Vannier's suggestion, and amid much laughter, Sorensen was delegated to see if he could make a deal with a Sierra Madre dealer.

Additional petitions were received asking for a sewer on Esperanza between Baldwin and Hermosa. This development was approved.

VILLA
VIEWSBy Toni Maurin
SY. 7-9634

I believe it is only fair to warn those who might have been worrying about it, that I will not seek nomination for office as President of the United States. On the other hand, if I am d-r-a-f-t-ed, I will do my best to live up to the faith of my supporters.

Well, that is a load off my mind. Those few words may one day be as important and meaningful in our lives as the Fifth Amendment or Shakespeare's immortal "To be or not to be, that is the question."

Seriously, it must take a lot of courage for a man to subject himself to the slander and mudslinging that seems to be a part of our political setup. He will be criticized from his religion to his ingrown toenails; his privacy will become a permanent sacrificial lamb.

It is little wonder they hesitate to throw their hats in the ring and deliberately commit their lives to the general public. This can't help but be an interesting year from beginning to end, full of wild promises and veiled innuendoes. Let's hope when the elections are over and things quiet down again we haven't changed our friends.

THE JAMES S. SMARTS of Sierra Madre Villa bid farewell to Mrs. Smart's sister, Mrs. Thelma Calopedis, and 8-year-old niece, Terry, who have been visiting for the past two weeks from York, Pa. Cindy Calopedis, the other daughter, is living here with the Smarts while finishing up high school, so it served as a double family reunion. The Smarts took them to some of the interesting Southland sights which naturally included Disneyland and the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Parade.

MR. AND MRS. Raymond C. Hurt of Wynn Road had a surprise visitor for New Year's. Mrs. Hurt's cousin, Dr. Mel Westoujal, flew out from Lake Geneva, Wis., to attend the parade and game. The following Saturday, the Hurts had a dinner party which included as guests Merrie Jule Barney, Wisconsin's State "Alice in Dairyland for 1959," and her mother, Mrs. Leland S. Barney.

Merrie Jule will be "Alice in Dairyland" until next August, at which time she'll give up her title and resume her college career.

Incidentally, from one who rode on the float, the word has come that it took two days to warm up again in spite of all the extra B.V.D.s.

MR. AND MRS. Prentis C. Hale are officially settled in their newly completed home at 3155 West Lo Lane. They have two children; their 15-year-old son Tom is a student at Marshall Junior High, and their daughter Linda is a freshman at University of California at Santa Barbara. Incidentally, Linda has pledged Alpha Phi, which is her mother's sorority.

Mr. Hale is treasurer for the Southern California Edison Company in Los Angeles. His outside interest is one of the most worthwhile I've heard of in some time. He is on the National Board of Directors of the Y.M.C.A. and on the International Committee.

I asked Mrs. Hale if this just didn't take about all of his time, and she said yes, but the work is so gratifying and fulfilling that they both feel it is a privilege to be able to have a hand in shaping the tomorrow's future of today's youth.

In addition to all of this, they are both extremely active in the Presbyterian Church in Pasadena. I asked Mrs. Hale if she had any housewarming gifts, and she said the "Paper Baggers" had come for lunch bearing gifts, and that had made it seem real. The "Paper Baggers" are a group of women who have met monthly over the years for the sheer purpose of enjoying one another's company—nothing more—nothing less.

Garden Tour

Mrs. Grant Holt of San Marino has been selected chairman of the 1960 Pasadena Area Girl Scout Garden Tours. An annual event for the past 27 years, the spring tours will be held on the weekends of March 5 and 6, March 26 and 27, and April 23 and 24.

Assisting with the tours are Mrs. Richard E. Loomis, chairman of the garden finding committee, and her assistants, Mrs. C. A. Getschine, Mrs. V. C. Larsen, Mrs. J. Albert Larson, Mrs. Hammond G. Nash, Mrs. John H. Rice, Mrs. L. Hartley Smith and Mrs. Jane Sutton.

Mrs. W. R. Weinman is in charge of tickets, Mrs. A. B. Dorland, publicity and Mrs. Norman Hewitt, scout office.

Field PTA Sets
Safety Meeting
Wednesday Night

Eugene Field PTA will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the cafeteria, with Mr. Robert Seares, Arcadia chief of police, heading a panel discussion on juvenile protection and safety.

An exhibit of children's work from the Field art club will be displayed. Hostesses will be third grade room mothers—Mrs. John Baker, Mrs. Warren H. Dunning, Mrs. Rodger E. Fetzner, Mrs. Norman E. Pechota, Mrs. John D. Donohue, Mrs. Evan P. Whitlock, Mrs. Bruce Graham, Mrs. Thomas G. Mico and Mrs. David H. Philip.

bid a sad farewell to their relatives last week. Mrs. Sanders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Poe, visited them for two weeks from Little Rock, Ark., and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Poe, came from Hot Springs. They had several parties in their honor as well as a fast pace of seeing the high spots of Southern California during their stay.

Incidentally, from one who rode on the float, the word has come that it took two days to warm up again in spite of all the extra B.V.D.s.

Dr. Hicks
To Address
Trinity Guild

Dr. Robert Hicks, associate director of the education department of the famed American Institute of Family Relations, will be the guest speaker at the monthly luncheon of the Women's Guild of Trinity Presbyterian Church at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Dr. Hicks will speak on "Your Responsibilities to Whom?" designed to give the hearer thought on whether she is doing too much or too little for outside groups and enough for those at home.

Mrs. Jan Hjorth, program chairman, arranged the luncheon discussion. A devotional at 11:30 a.m. will open the meeting, followed by luncheon at noon, with Dr. Hicks' talk to follow.

Square Dance
Class Starts

Square dancing is continuing to grow, with better than 300 clubs dancing regularly in the Los Angeles County area alone. Contributing to its increasing popularity is the fact that it is a wholesome recreation, easily learned and providing an opportunity of meeting and enjoying the companionship of many fine people.

Pasadena Department of Recreation, in line with its policy of providing the best for the residents of this area, has started a beginners' square dance class for adults, taught by one of the Southland's ablest instructors, "Pappy" Benedict.

This class opened last Thursday at Field School, 3600 Sierra Madre Blvd., and will meet each Thursday night for the term. Registration is at 7:30 p.m. and the class will remain open for three weeks only. A nominal fee will be charged. For further information phone SY. 9-1777.

Adults Can Study
Securities Mart

The San Marino High School Adult Education Department has announced that a ten week course in Securities Investment will again be offered to the public of San Marino, Sierra Madre, San Gabriel, Arcadia, South Pasadena and the surrounding area. The course will be given at the San Marino High School commencing Jan. 13, 1960. Classes will be two hours in length, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Ronald Witter, registered representative with the firm of Dean Witter & Co. in San Marino, will again be instructor. Subjects range from a simple description of common stock to advanced speculative market techniques. No particular securities are recommended nor is anyone urged to invest. All interested are welcome to attend. Call Atlantic 9-3691, Extension 6 or 7.

The theme of the conference is "Our Community Trust," and concurrent workshops will be held by the AJLA staff consultants, Chris Dingman, ways and means, and Luella Hoskins, TV. Mrs. Stephen T. Ochoa of Tucson, Ariz., director of Region XII of the Association of Junior Leagues of America, Inc., will preside over the Regional Meeting.

The five delegates attending the conference from the Junior League of Pasadena are Mrs. Warner Marsden, president; Mrs. Calvin Goodrich, first vice president; Mrs. Lawrence S. Gray Jr., education chairman; Mrs. Jefferson C. Wright, community news advertising manager, and Mrs. John Terry Maxwell, assistant treasurer.

Delegates will be from Phoenix and Tucson, Ariz.; Long Beach, Los Angeles, Oakland, Pasadena, Sacramento, San Diego, San Francisco and Santa Barbara, Calif.; Albuquerque, N.M., and Honolulu, Hawaii.

RANCH WRENS HEAD TALK ON JUVENILES Mrs. James O'Keefe, from the Pasadena Juvenile Bureau, addressed members of the Ranch Wrens at their first meeting of 1960. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Willard Olwin, with Mrs. Thomas McClintock as co-chairman.

HERALDING THEIR ANNUAL Peanut Sale which starts at 3 p.m. tomorrow are these Blue Bird representatives of the hundreds of Sierra Madre and Hastings Ranch girls who will be out selling peanuts to their neighbors as a fund raising project of Camp Fire Girls. Left to right are Kathy Graham, Mrs. Jennings David, Hastings peanut chairman, Susan David and Lisa Mann, preparing for business.

Camp Fire Girls Begin
Peanut Sale Tomorrow

Sierra Madre and Hastings Ranch Camp Fire Girls and their little sister Blue Birds will join with others from throughout the San Gabriel Valley Council in their annual peanut sale beginning at 3 p.m. tomorrow and continuing through Feb. 1.

The peanuts, packed in vacuum tins, will sell for 50 cents a can. The girls will be supervised by an adult while selling door-to-door and also will sell from special sales locations, in the banks, markets and stores of their neighborhoods.

Profits from the peanut sale are important to the youth group because, while Camp Fire is a Red Feather agency, no Community Chest funds may be used for capital improvements, and the camps of the Camp Fire Girls need facilities. The peanut sale is the only fund-raising activity of the group throughout the year.

The refreshment table was centered by a cake baked in the form of a lion by Mrs. Willumson. The guests of honor were presented with pictures of each of the guests present to have for their scrapbook.

Those in attendance were Karolyn and Fred Kraft, Roxanne Loomis, Bobbie and Tom Elsaesser, Mike and Pat Sweetman, Steve Segal, Bobby Brady, Glen Willumson and the guests of honor's cousins, Mary and Ann Gillingham.

Absentee
Problems
To Be Studied

A committee of Pasadena PTA Council members and school officials are holding meetings to consider the best solution to absentee report problems.

Since it is agreed to be the best interest of both the parents and school to know where the children are at all times, a workable and practical plan is being sought by the committee.

This semester, Pasadena schools have telephoned parents in each case of first-time absence. This has not proven satisfactory since a great number of the parents do not have telephones and another large percentage are employed. Too, the cost to the school is considerable.

With pupil welfare as the prime motive, and economy as the second, several new methods for confirming absences are being considered.

Parents of children attending Eugene Field and Don Benito Schools are being asked to notify the school clerk when their child will be absent. The schools, for their part, will attempt to reach parents in case of unexplained absences.

AOPi Alumnae
Luncheon Today
At Bryant Home

Pasadena alumnae of Alpha Omicron Pi will meet at 12:45 o'clock this afternoon for a salad luncheon at the home of Mrs. O. W. Bryant, 725 E. Palm, Monrovia.

Hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Francis Small, Mrs. Phillip Smith and Mrs. W. H. Thornton.

Floral arrangements will be discussed by Mrs. C. S. Boerstler, floral consultant.

MRS. EAKMAN HOME Mrs. Florence Eakman of 194 Mariposa, Sierra Madre, is back at her home after almost a year in four hospitals in the San Gabriel Valley for treatment of arthritis and an operation. Mrs. Eakman will be glad to see old friends at her home.

Delta Zeta Alums Plan
Two Charity Luncheons

Delta Zetas of the Pasaden-Foothill Alumnae chapter will hold their first 1960 meeting at the home of Mrs. Jay Phillips, 300 E. Alstar, Arcadia, at 6:30 o'clock tonight.

A buffet dinner will be served first, with a meeting to follow, when important business will be the planning of the annual Valentine Luncheon which Delta Zetas give for members of the Pasadena Braille Club. This event is set for Feb. 3.

Dr. William A. Grishaw, director of the Unibetic Camp for Diabetic Children, and chief of metabolic diseases at Children's Hospital, will present a slide-illustrated talk on the Unibetic Camp. This camp for four years has benefited from the sorority's annual Flame Fantasy, a fashion luncheon at the Beverly-Hilton Hotel.

The Flame Fantasy this year will be Feb. 6. Dr. Grishaw's talk, giving a vivid portrayal of the Unibetic Camp at this last meeting before the big event, is expected to increase the incentive of the members to make the luncheon a real financial success.

In charge of the dinner for tonight's meeting are Mrs. Leon McCall, Mrs. George R. Sperry, Mrs. Arlene Boller, Mrs. Edmund R. Neil, Mrs. Leslie W. Wyre, Mrs. Rodney C. Carley, Mrs. Harold F. Richards, Miss Lenna M. O'Neill and Miss Carol Ulom.

UP ON . . .

Hastings Hill

There's a weird and creepy substance out that is known as "idiotic clay" or "silly putty" or somesuch, and we are compelled to talk about it. It is not properly named. Really it is the original "blob" and it is a secret weapon of some kind, invented by somebody who hates mankind and wants to get even.

Its a pale pink stuff and you buy a little gob of it in a plastic egg for a buck, after being threatened and cajoled by the children who heard about it on TV. You think it's kind of interesting, too, because you can break it, put it back together, bounce it and make pictures with it.

You cannot take it to bed with you, however. One little blob taken to bed clenched in a little fist, can absolutely glue a little guy's hair ruin his pajamas, sheets and pillowcase, plus two more sheets when he climbs in bed with mom and pop in the night.

By now there's also a gob on the living room rug, a blob on sister's coat, a little piece between the piano keys and some in the dog's tail. There's plenty left for bouncing and picture reproducing and as soon as we can manage it, we're donating it to the garbage man.

Also we're writing the Pentagon. The government should know about this weapon.

DID YOU notice that UCLA is offering dancing classes, like the cha-cha-cha, etc.? They are, however, putting things on a very high plane.

The name of the course is "Skills in Social Dance for Men and Women 820 AB," and offers "experience in basic motor movements, music and rhythm related to various social dance forms such as fox trot, waltz, swing, pop, Latin-American dances, two step, polka and schottische." There are two teachers, Miss Pyatt and Mr. Pillich. See you there.

ANN ROBERTS' one-man art exhibit at Monrovia Library opened Sunday and brought out many Hastings friends—Betty McGraw, Winnie and Bill Kinnard, Jack and Nancy McKenna, Betty and Bill Hogboom, etc., etc. The Gordon Tempers lent their Ann Roberts painting for the show, which is being well received.

THE ARTHUR Farrons of Cleveland Heights, O., are visiting their son and his family, the Robert A. Farrons. They spent the holidays in the Ranch and were on hand to greet their new grandson, Robert Jr., when he arrived the 29th of last month. They plan to return to their home around Jan. 25.

SEEMS AS though last week's story about Ranch boys participating in the YMCA seminars left out one of the "stars." Phil Carroll, son of Mrs. C. C. Ripley, was chosen to be valedictorian for the engineering group.

SINCE THIS appears to be a time of correction, it should be noted that it was Edna and Grant Jensen of 1320 Tropical who fashioned those pert little pixies that won them an honorable mention in the outdoor holiday decoration contest. Ken Dinwittie, who hasn't lived at the address for the past year,

Youth Vision
Survey Bares
Help Needed

Sierra Madre optometrist, Dr. Daniel D'Arcy, member of the San Gabriel Valley Optometric Society, today pointed out that the just concluded visual efficiency survey of students of the Nativity School in El Monte again graphically illustrated the importance of early testing of children's vision.

The visual efficiency survey, conducted by members of the San Gabriel Valley Optometric Society, is designed to detect faulty vision in children so that the proper corrective procedure may be begun before the problems have become too deeply rooted. Children were tested for vision in both eyes together and separately and for vertical and lateral eye muscle balance.

Dr. Daniel Greene, president of the San Gabriel Valley Optometric Society, reported that of the 499 students tested, 20 per cent were found to need further visual assistance. Results of each child's test were reported to his parents with the Society's recommendations regarding further care.

Optometrists participating in the testing program were: Doctors Al Reiddell, Lloyd Davis, Dan D'Arcy, Wayne Morrison, Bert Crawford, Dick Sachs, Wayne Kuetell, John Harvey, William Shasky, Lyle Forbes, Bob Severtson, Richard Kramb, Cron Kirkby, Bill McCormick and Warren Greene.

Leon Ware Has
Story in Post

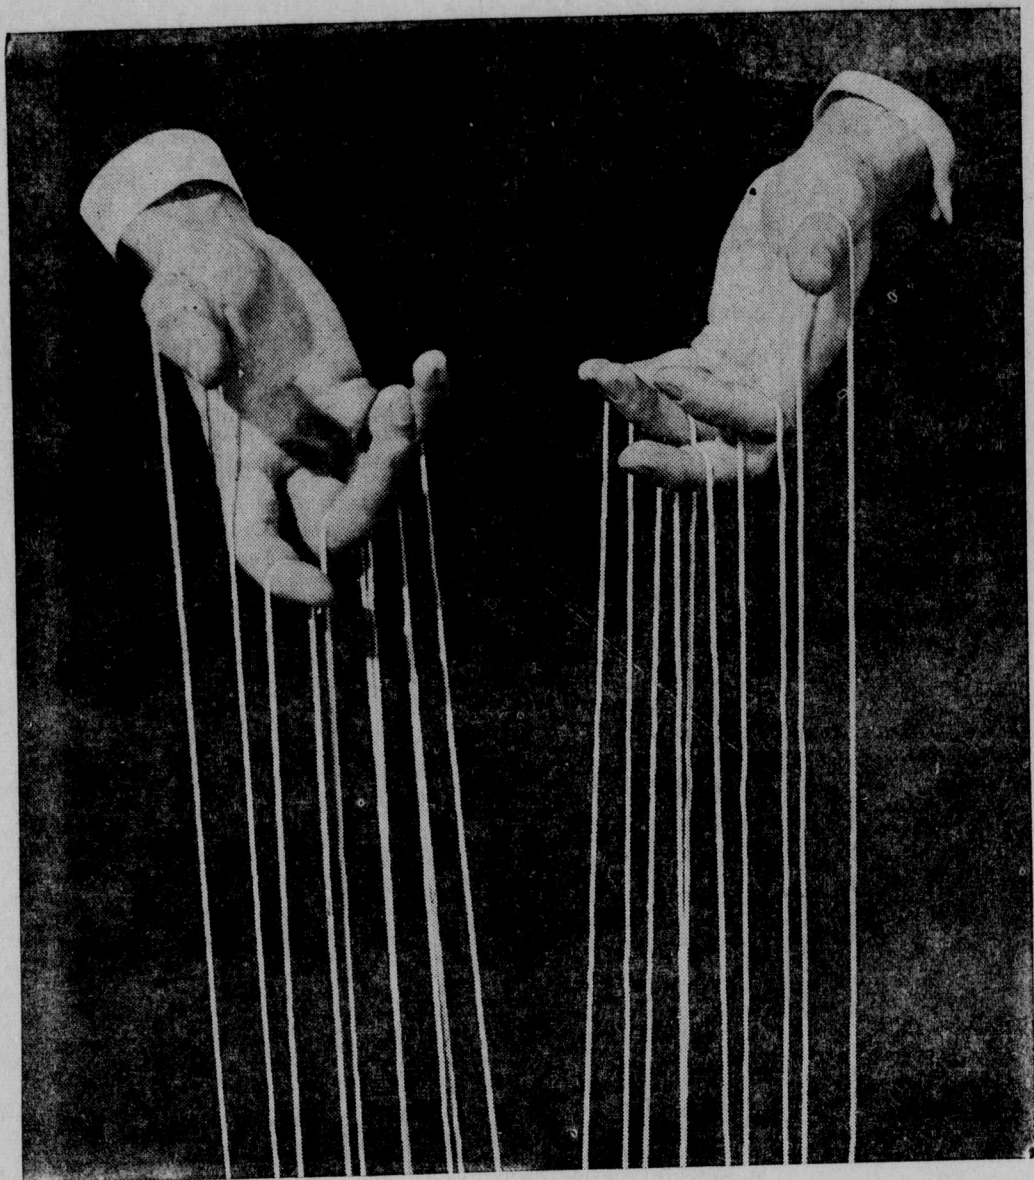

Leon Ware who formerly lived on Orange Grove Ave., Arcadia, and who shopped in Sierra Madre for several years, has an interesting fiction story about "Mad Dog" in last week's issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

The story has to do with a youngster named Tommy, and someone in town who was harboring a dangerously ill animal. Ware now lives at Lido, Newport Harbor.

Life's darkest moment always comes when a hustler completes a job while the efficiency expert waits near for a blueprint.

Whim Strings

The lives of some of us are comparable to puppets, controlled by strings, with the exception that we control the strings by our own personal whims, fancies and shortcomings. Our lives are almost without direction. The strings are strings of fear, resentment, inferior feelings or complexes that control our thoughts and actions, until they reach a place where our lives are without goal, often gloomy and unhappy.

Help may be gained in releasing us from such a situation through the church of our faith or by uniting with a church and its fellowship. This is true because the church teaches and emphasizes positive living and counsels a change from negative to positive traits, such as courage, hope, faith and joy. The church can help us change our life controls from negative "whim strings" to a line of positive spiritual power.

With the hope that it will, in some measure, foster and help sustain that which is good in family and community life, this feature is sponsored by the business firms and organizations whose names appear in this space.

S.M. Sailor Helps Rescue 15 Seamen

Ted Fields, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Fields of 36 W. Highland Ave., Sierra Madre, assisted in the rescue of the crew of the ill-fated Liberian freighter SS Guam Pioneer, Dec. 17, while serving aboard the radar picket ship USS Watchman operating off the coast of California.

An SOS message, relayed by a shore installation, sent the Watchman steaming south in search of the abandoned vessel's crew. Upon reaching the area, two lifeboats with 15 men aboard were sighted. The freighter, with her load of scrap metal she was carrying to Honolulu, had already sunk from leaks caused by an earlier grounding incident.

After the Pioneer's crewmen were taken aboard, they were transferred to another Navy ship for transport back to San Francisco, and the Watchman resumed her radar surveillance duties.

San Fernando Run Tops at Santa Anita

Top contenders for the estimated $170,000 Santa Anita Maturity, set for its 13th running on Jan. 30, are among the nominees for this Saturday's San Fernando Stakes. Importance of the event, exclusively for four-year-olds, is shown by the added money being doubled to $50,000 and the distance lengthened out to 1 1/4 miles this season.

The Big Four of Kentucky Derby winner, Tomy Lee; 1958 juvenile champion, First Landing; Lawrence Realization winner, Middle Brother and Hollywood Derby winner, Bagdad, are all pointing to start to be ready for the 1 1/4 miles of The Maturity.

It promises to be a bang-up race with additional competition to come from American Comet, Demobilize, Finigan, Mr. Eiffel and the outstanding South American challenger, Mamboreta.

Santa Anita feature races during the third full week of the "Silver Jubilee" season are being run in the names of Will Rogers State Beach, Rancho Casitas, Noor, Covina, Pasadena Shakespeare Club Juniors, Culver City, Mid-Winter Fair, Duarte, Reseda Bowl Sports Club, San Ysidro Stock Farm, All Star Pro Game and H. C. Hill Farm.

L.A. County Population Is 5,924,000

Population of Los Angeles County was 5,924,000 on Jan. 1, according to estimates made by the California Taxpayers' Association. The count showed an increase of 103,000 during 1959 and an increase of 1,722,313 since the 1950 census count of 4,151,687.

California reached a new population peak of 15,343,000 to start the new decade. In a pre-release of an article scheduled to appear in the January issue of "Tax Digest," the Association's official publication, Hugh H. Brown, Cal-Tax research statistician, said, "The state showed a near record growth of 540,000 during 1959. Since the end of World War II, growth of this volume has been exceeded only in 1956 and 1952."

Greatest numerical growth during 1959, according to Brown, was 103,000 in Los Angeles County. Orange County was second with 91,600 and San Diego County third with 77,000.

Fluoridation of domestic water supplies as a means of preventing tooth decay will be a high-lighted subject.

Headline speakers will include Dr. Drexel A. Boyd, professor of operative dentistry at Indiana University; Dr. Victor H. Sears, of Salt Lake City, former professor of prosthetic dentistry at New York University; Dr. Robert H. Willey, of the University of Southern California dental school; and Dr. William J. Gardner, a visiting lecturer at Tufts University Dental School.

Veterans to Cut $22,612,000 Divvy

An estimated 450,683 California veterans who hold participating GI life insurance will receive $22,612,000 in regular annual policy dividends during 1960, Mort Webster, manager of the Veterans Administration regional office in Los Angeles, announces.

Webster said this represents California GI policyholders' proportionate share in a national 1960 dividend total of $253,500,000 declared recently for participating GI insurance.

Property Tax Statements Receivable at City Hall

Taxpayers of Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch and vicinities may now file annual property statements with the deputy assessors currently canvassing this area, according to County Assessor John R. Quinn. For convenience of residents of this area, a branch office is located in Sierra Madre City Hall, and will be open from Jan. 19 to April 12.

The annual claims for the veteran or church exemptions also should be filed with this property statement at any branch. Legislative action, effective for 1960, has reduced the period during which the veterans and church exemptions may be claimed. Effective this year, these exemptions must be claimed by the first Monday in May, 1960.

IF NOT AT HOME when the deputy calls, this required statement may be filed at any of the 79 branch offices in Los Angeles County. A doorknob notice is left

Army Openings For Young Women

The Army has a limited number of openings during the first three months of this year for young women interested in learning such technical skills as drafting and cartography, making prosthetic appliances, communications center operations, and office skills associated with finance and administrative work.

Assignment to these job fields can be guaranteed to qualified high school graduates who obtain necessary passing scores in Army aptitude tests taken before enlistment in the Women's Army Corps.

"An enlistment to any of these career option fields results either in specialized schooling or in on-the-job training," explains Master Sgt. Bill Riddell, commander of the U.S. Army Recruiting Station located at 129 N. Marengo Ave., Pasadena.
